

Apostille Archive - English Version

Archive Commentary

This archive is not merely a technical repository of PDF files. It is a structured array of documents authenticated with an apostille confirmed by the Hague Conference on Private International Law.

The apostille certifies the authenticity of a signature and the status of an official. It does not certify the legality of the content of a judicial act.

Purpose of Publishing

The archive was created to: 1) Establish chronology of judicial decisions, 2) Demonstrate procedural inconsistencies, 3) Analyze recurring patterns, 4) Identify institutional impunity, 5) Support cascade judicial rehabilitation.

Article 17 of the Rome Statute

Article 17 establishes complementarity. International jurisdiction activates if the state is unwilling or unable to conduct genuine investigation. The key question provided for in Article 17: Was genuine investigation carried out or was there justice simulation?

Conclusion

This archive is a tool for analysis. It shows structure of decisions. The answer defines boundary between state domestic jurisdiction and international responsibility.
